

Consider this...

By John Palmer

Lots to talk about! Last Sunday night was our second breakout night for small groups. After class we enjoyed a time of fellowship, then we had the chance to look at various stars and planets through telescopes (I saw Saturn—the planet, not the car!). It was a great evening and I look forward to more!

Happy Birthday to Sister Lourine Hood, who celebrated her 100th yesterday!

Today is our blood drive. If you are able, please see Kevin Coffee or any of the people with the bloodmobile to give.

Dan Deckard is now doing the assignments for worship service. He's made some changes to the monthly schedule that already are well received. He is working from information that has been gathered only in the past couple months. What this means is, if you have not filled out involvement forms since mid-December, you are not on the list to serve, regardless if you've been here 20 years or just a few months.

In order to help participants, we are now posting the assignments on our web site as well. Joe Garcia maintains it and has eagerly accepted the challenges I've given him! We have the monthly calendar (which is updated during the month), a birthday list (of names/dates I have), and now the service assignments.

We also hope to do a printed pictorial directory early this year. We need family photos, if you haven't already done so.

Lots to talk about—and do!

Today—Blood Drive, 7:30am—2:00 pm. See Kevin Coffee for Details.

Tuesday—Ladies' Bible Class, 9:30 am (English), new theme: Fruit of the Spirit. 6:30 pm (Spanish).

March 8—Spring Night Italian potluck dinner, 6 pm. Bread provided; in addition to food, bring 2, 2 liter drinks, and old photos.

March 15—KFC Easter Egg Hunt, 2:30—4:30 pm. Each child needs to bring 12 plastic, candy-filled eggs. Please sign up. See Tammy Gonzalez or Lisa Capiro for details.

Griffin Road Youth Program

Thank you to all of our youth who participated in our Karaoke Night this past Friday. We have a very talented group of teens here at Griffin Road. One thing that I like about Karaoke is that it helps you to not take yourself so seriously. These types of events are very important for our children because it gives them the opportunity to crack away at their shell that can hold them back so much in life. Thank you again.

Please sign up for our camping trip scheduled for March 14th- 15th. You can sign up in the hallway and I need chaperones as well as the teens to commit. We will be staying at Quiet Waters Park in Deerfield. The price per person is $25. This covers food and registration at Quiet Waters. You do not need to bring tents on this camp out because Quiet Waters is equipped with pre-setup tents for our group. I have been apart of many youth events, but it is always the campouts that make such an impact on our youth. It is an incredible bonding experience and they will have so much fun. Please sign today if possible.

Thank you

Brad Poyet

Music News

Next Sunday evening is our song service. There has been a lot of interest in learning new songs, so we want to take time for that. If you want to request a new and/or unfamiliar song, you are invited to submit the title and song number to Ben Leonard. He and some of our other song leaders will try to help us all learn them enough to sing well. With well over 1,000 songs in our current book, and new songs being published all the time, we ought to be incorporating new material all the time, while we still sing and enjoy old favorites.

If you don't usually come on Sunday nights, you ought to give it a try! The 2nd Sunday is our song service. The 4th Sunday is our breakout night for small group classes. The others are a more traditional worship service. We hope to see you!
