

Consider this...

By John Palmer

The beginning of summer always brings two big events for us. The first is Vacation Bible School, which will be held June 12-14. Ed and Lisa Capiro direct VBS and always do an amazing job. This year's theme is "Kids of the King," and will include kids up through Middle School. They are hoping to get everyone above that age (which means High School and above) involved. You can help teach, be in a skit, wrangle kids, do crafts or games or...well, you get the idea! There is much to be done and lots of help is needed. If you can help, remember the meeting after evening services.

If you are planning to send/bring kids, please RSVP to Ed or Lisa asap. They need to get a relatively firm count. Today is also the deadline for t-shirt orders. Check the bulletin board for details.

The other big event of early summer is camp. I am excited this year because we are adding the 6th graders to our week. If you have kids going into 6th grade (or who should be in 6th grade), please send them to camp. They are well supervised and we have a lot of adults and kids from our congregation.

I received a roster last week and there is still plenty of room for you children or grandchildren. If anyone is planning to go but has not yet sent in their application, you should do that tomorrow. We need to get all that information turned in so the camp can plan adequately for food, shirts, etc.

Remember the Adult-Teen Connection and Adult-College Connection revealing tonight. We'll also enjoy a light meal after revealing who our "prayer kids" have been all year. It'll be great!

Griffin Road Youth Program

Today is Area Wide Beach Devo so get your beach towels and flip flops ready. Every first Sunday of the month we meet with other youth groups at the beach to play and worship together. If you would like to come, please join us here at the building at 3:30pm and caravan over to the beach. Beach Devo's are a good way to introduce new people to the group, so if you have a friend in mind, bring them along.

This Saturday we were planning on going to Rapids Water Park, unfortunately we are having to postpone this event. There are a few other changes in our June calendar. Please pick up a new Summer Calendar today at church so you can be up to date on all of our events planned for our youth program.
