Making Connections...

John Palmer

Last Sunday night, a new fellowship team was formed. Diann Shettlesworth, Barbara Price, Mirti Murray, and Margaret McAfee will oversee the planning of our monthly fellowships. They have been moved to the 1st Sunday night of each month and we are asking interested parties to sign up to help set up and clean up. Also, the dinners are open to everyone...we hope the whole congregation comes and joins in a time of fellowship. When you do, please bring food enough for your family plus two additional individuals, plus a drink (2-liter?), and (most importantly!!!) a dessert. This will make sure we have plenty of food and can enjoy ourselves.

These are excellent opportunities to meet or get to know brothers or sisters you may not know well. I hope you all make an effort to attend.

Also, Core Matters kicks off October 4. This is 10-12 week focus on core values. From Scripture, we can identify things that are important...things that should be at our "core"...things that (should) matter. Thus, "Core Matters."

Brad Poyet designed the artwork, which provides an image that we hope sticks. You'll notice the four words: Belong, Embody, Grow, Serve. These "boil down" four elements of our vision. They are the core values that we want to emphasize.

Read the vision (back page). It contains very Biblical ideas. They cannot be dismissed. They are vital and our leadership felt these ideas need the most focus. I'm very excited about the Fall. I hope you'll plan to be involved!

Youth Connections...

Brad Poyet

This Friday is our first LifeGroups. LifeGroups will evolve into a program that will focus on strengthening our unity as a youth group. This Friday however will be our intro for LifeGroups. It will be at the building from 6-8pm. We will simulate a LifeGroup meeting that will eventually be held in homes of our youth members. We will also use this time to go over the new youth program. Depth, Connect, and Share. Parents please attend this event and pick up your youth program booklet. I am very excited about our program and I believe in it. I want our family to get behind what we are doing and changing. Thanks and please try to make it this Friday at the Church.

Thank You!!

Thanks to all who've donated money or bought sheets. We now have 150 sets of sheets for the hospital in Tarapoto!

Thanks to Gary Pearce for working on the flower beds outside the north lobby entrance. He has 'spruced' them up very nicely!
